Mr. CLAY suggested that the appropriate time to argue the question of uniting two or more subjects in one ball, would arrive after the Committee and had made a report joining two or more incongraous saddende a report joining two or more incongraous saddende a report joining two or more incongraous saddenders. It, however, the Senator desired no vote at present, but simply to make a speach he lead of the power of imperchanent. When it select Committee, and the uniting by said Committee of two or more incongruous subjects in the act, if it should be done, is in violation of all correct Parhamentiary practice. Having got through with his elastication, Mr. Bonton proceeded with some remarks upon the general subject. He said the reference of California to a Committee known to be against the was a violation of that great principle of Parliamentary law which refers all subjects to a Committee supposed to be in favor. He defended the course which he had taken in the Senate in opposition to the action on the belin, in the referring to the Select Committee of so many subjects it was his duty to do so, and all the cultiest and animal.

GERMAN SHOEMAKERS.—The regular meeting of the German Shoemakers was held on the glat inst. at F. A. Hillenbrand's, in Hester st. We learn that this association is in a very flourishing condition and that great unanimity prevails at its councils. It partially cooperates with the English THE BAKERS.-The German and English divisions of the Bakers' Operative Union met in adjoining rooms at Hillenbrand's, on Saturday evening-Henry Stephens presiding over the Germans, assisted by Louis Sems, Secretary. The Constitution and By laws which had been adopted by the English division were adopted by the Germans. Fifty three Bakers have been already initiated, and 200 others have signed an agreement to cooperate with the Society, but are not yet initiated. Bartholomew Derham officiated as President at the English meeting, and John Hunter as Secretary. The Constitution adopted a week ago was again read for the benefit of those who were unacquainted
